Reviews:

"...so much God-given talent...snippets of melody that rank with the best ever played on radio."

- Derrick Evans, The Musician's Exchange, July 1996

"Uplifting and insightful...energetic and sincere."

- The Courier News, June 13, 1996

"An energetic performer...great percussive playing, fine chord changes and interesting melodies. Massimo has a real future as a performing artist and songwriter." ****

- Francis Bell, The Music Paper, October 1996

"His insistent, emotional vocals are of the caliber of the defining acoustic artists from a generation earlier. Michael's talent is real and his songs are convincingly heartfelt."

- Geoff Wilbur, The Renegade, February 1997

"'Live In N.Y.C.' illustrates his clear robust style of playing and hints at influences such as Dan Fogelberg and James Taylor. 'The Journey Is Divine' is brisk and exuberant and Massimo shows fantastic control of his vocal range on the pretty and melodic 'Love Is'."

- Chris Jordan, The Home News & Tribune, February 8, 1997
