Reviews:

"Michael's music stood out right away as something original, even experimental, compared to many Jersey bands. The melodies and lyrics were thoughtful and positive, unlike most of the cookie-cutter acts on the radio today."

- Patrice A. D'Angelo, JerseyStyle, January, 2000

"A credit to 29-year-old Massimo's imagination or his listening skills or both."

- Kelly-Jane Cotter, Asbury Park Press, October 16, 1999

"Massimo's music is more epic and grandiose than your average pop song. He seeks to forge new musical territory by combining complex chords and progressions underneath his often spiritual lyrics."

- Rene Bo, Rhythm And News Magazine, July 1999

"His songs could work in three ways: as singer/songwriter material, pop songcraft, and pure unadulterated rock & roll. "Precious Seconds" is seriously worth the wait. One of the best records of recent months by a great, growing singer and songwriter. Nine great, powerful songs that will turn heads upon impact and get people wondering, "Who is this guy?". His name is Michael Massimo; remember it."

- Larry Davis, Rant 'N Rave July 20, 1999
